Recruiting Teens to Work

Do you have a hobby or activity that you are good at? Teen Services is looking for teens to develop and lead clubs at the various teen centers throughout Fairfax County. Use your talent and energy to teach your peers. If you have a specialized skill and a desire to teach your skill, please contact Wendell Byrd at 703-324-5718 or wendell.byrd@fairfaxcounty.gov.

Program Descriptions

SPORTS & FITNESS

Sports are a big part of the centers. We use sports to offer physical activity, build teamwork skills, and for just plain fun. Basketball, football, and soccer are amongst some of the sports we offer. Our staff helps the teens with their skills, and offers support when needed. Fitness and wellness are also included in our activities. Seasonal sports leagues give teens that are otherwise not able to, the opportunity to be part of a team.

PREVENTION ACTIVITIES

The Teen Centers offer prevention programs as a means to provide the teens the appropriate information to make positive choices in society. Activities include drug and alcohol awareness, healthy life-styles, HIV and AIDS awareness and workshops, building healthy relationships, and preventing gang and domestic violence.

COMMUNITY SERVICE / VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Being a part of the community that surrounds the center is very important. Teens are offered the chance to participate in different service and volunteer opportunities to enrich their lives while completing requirements for school. These activities are planned in conjunction with different projects in and around the county, like Volunteer Fairfax, and Adopt-A-Highway.

COOPERATIVE CHALLENGES

Cooperative games/challenges provide essential skills for teens. They teach teamwork skills, effective communication tools, and enhance self-esteem through group interaction. Also, by successfully participating in these challenges, teens build healthy and long-lasting relationships with their peers.

CHARACTER COUNTS ACTIVITIES

The six pillars of character are: respect, responsibility, trustworthiness, caring, fairness and citizenship. They provide teens with essential building blocks for core ethical values. Our multi-level activities allow teens to explore these different character traits and strengthen the moral fiber of the next generation.

FIELD TRIPS / SPECIAL EVENTS

Each Teen Center offers special events such as inter-center basketball leagues, center dances, and open houses, among others. We also offer field trips to attractions in and around the D.C. Metropolitan area. These field trips are sponsored by Fairfax County Community and Recreation Services.

TEEN SPEAK OUT

Teens today want to voice their opinions about specific issues and concerns. The centers provide a forum for the teens to take ownership of their community and issues that are prevalent in the area.

COMMUNITY RESPONSE

Do you want a specific program or activity in your community? Give us a call and see what we can do. Contact Evan Braff at 703-324-5650, TTY 711 or email at evan.braff@fairfaxcounty.gov
